Name:	Date:
Cho	osing a Person
Step 1: Make a list of 3 - 5 possible the world who fascinate you.	e subjects for your biography. Think about all the people in
Cton 2. Done a swink an arch on the L
	Internet or on your public library website to see how much out your three candidates. It is not fun to try to write a nd enough information for!
, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,	h person on your list you think there is enough information eckmark, you need to add to your list.
Step 3: Choose a person. In a short and why you've chosen this person.	paragraph, explain who you've chosen for your biography

If you are able to request/reserve public library books online or sign out ebooks, do this now so the books arrive quickly. Don't forget, books with many people may include your person. (The Kids Book of Great Canadians and books like that.)

Submit this assignment in the assignment dropbox for teacher approval.