

Name: _____ Date: _____

Novel Study – Reading Scavenger Hunt

Before You Read

Complete and submit these activities before you start reading the novel.

Mark: /16

A) Find the author's name and book title.

_____ /2

B) What is another book this author has written? Why or why not does it sound like a book you'd like to read?

_____ /2

C) Look at the pictures. (What do the pictures let you know about the story or text? What do the pictures make you think of? What do the captions suggest?) (4-point scale – 4: exceeds, 3: fully meets, 2: minimally meets)

/4

D) Read the book jacket, summary, and/or review. What do they tell you? Do they remind you of any other books? Anything in your own life or the world around you? (4-point scale – 4: exceeds, 3: fully meets, 2: minimally meets)

/4

E) Ask questions! Come up with at least two questions you have about the book. Think about different kinds of questions – who, what, where, when, and the big two - why and how. (4-point scale – 4: exceeds, 3: fully meets, 2: minimally meets)

/4

* In your next package, you will find an “as you read” activity. Please read the activity before you start reading so you know what is expected. It is a small activity that helps to focus your reading.****