

Communication Project - Composition 11

---

Students of COMPOSITION 11

Write an expository essay that explains Aboriginal Reconciliation in Canada to the target audience. Keep in mind that the expository style is unbiased; it is simply an explanation of fact. You should use at least three sources in addition to those provided during this project's introduction. All of your sources should be included in a works cited page at the end of your essay.

Your essay should:

- Be 3 - 5 pages long (not including your works cited page)
- Use a formal tone
- Use mature vocabulary
- Be written using Times New Roman font, size 12
- Be double spaced

ASSESSMENT (24/24):

Learning Target - Exemplary (6/6): Final product demonstrates a rich understanding of diversity within and across First Peoples societies, as well as the diverse perspectives of modern Canadians. This understanding results from thorough research and close analysis of texts. Ideas are communicated clearly and respectfully, acknowledging the sensitivity of the given topic, in order to build a shared understanding.

Ideas/Content - Exemplary (6/6): Exemplary development of ideas. Content is clear, concise and true. Accomplishes the purpose with originality, individuality, maturity, and sophistication.

Reflection and Insight - Exemplary (6/6): Complex connections and original ideas are included in a thoughtful response that includes specific examples of the student's learning process and growth, which has been the result of informed, fact-based, data-driven research.

Conventions/Sentence Fluency - Exemplary (6/6): Sentence structure and vocabulary are varied, skillfully written (or spoken), and carefully chosen. Composition shows maturity in vocabulary, structure, and organization. Reflection on the quality of writing is evident, resulting in few or no errors.
