

Personal and Social Responsibility Project - Composition 11

Students of COMPOSITION 11

Write an editorial that explains your project to your target audience. Review “How to write an Editorial” from the previous section. You should use at least three sources that support your topic and help to persuade your target audience. All of your sources should be included in a works cited page at the end of your editorial.

Your editorial should:

- Be 1500-2500 words in length (remember to aim for quality over quantity)
- Use a formal vocabulary
- Use mature vocabulary
- Be written using Times New Roman font, size 12
- Be double spaced

ASSESSMENT (24/24):

Learning Target(s): Exemplary (6/6): Final project demonstrates a rich understanding. This understanding results from thorough research and close analysis of texts. Ideas are communicated clearly and respectfully, acknowledging the sensitivity of the given topic, in order to build a shared understanding.

Ideas and Content: Exemplary (6/6): Students will demonstrate a strong, convincing point of view. Students will show in depth thought and creative solution with clear arguments including explanations supporting each argument.

Organization and Conventions: Exemplary (6/6): Students will provide a clear introduction and logical sequence and conclusion. The piece has clearly been edited for spelling, grammar, punctuation and sentence fluency.

Research and Connecting Support: Exemplary (6/6): Students show excellent use of research to support chosen topic using MLA Referencing style. Complex connections and original ideas are included that demonstrate student's learning process and growth.