

Personal and Social Responsibility Project - Creative Writing 11

Students of CREATIVE WRITING 11

Write a children's story that is centered around your chosen issue. Create compelling characters and a plot that shares your issue, demonstrates its' importance, while engaging a young audience. An example of this would be "The Lorax" by Dr. Seuss.

Feel free to storyboard your book and include illustrations, but keep in mind that the objective is the message. Remember to include an engaging title and the plot elements of the hook, rising action, climax, falling action and resolution.

Your story should be:

- 1200-1500 words long

ASSESSMENT (24/24):

Learning Target(s): Exemplary (6/6): Final project demonstrates a rich understanding. This understanding results from thorough research and close analysis of texts. Ideas are communicated clearly and respectfully, acknowledging the sensitivity of the given topic, in order to build a shared understanding.

Ideas and Content: Exemplary (6/6): Students will demonstrate and strong, convincing point of view. Students will show in depth thought and creative solution with clear arguments including explanations supporting each argument.

Organization and Conventions: Exemplary (6/6): Students will provide a clear introduction and logical sequence and conclusion. The piece has clearly been edited for spelling, grammar, punctuation and sentence fluency.

Research and Connecting Support: Exemplary (6/6): Students show excellent use of research to support chosen topic using MLA Referencing style. Complex connections and original ideas are included that demonstrate student's learning process and growth.