Learning Guides/Assignments

Learning guides are designed to help you organize your thoughts about the topics. Assignments allow you to show your understanding of the material. All submissions MUST be very neatly done and well organized. If you have questions about a topic, be sure to ask.

Exam Supervision:

Before you write a unit exam, you must submit all assignments and complete all quizzes leading up to the exam. All exams are "closed book" and require supervision. If you are unable to access a local school to write your exams, you will need to find a teacher who will supervise your exams. Please have the teacher e-mail me and I will send the required information
